

Saluting those in business who give you great service

People in business who give us exceptional customer service deserve applause – especially when they continue to provide it in tough times.

Canterbury Registered Master Builders, Christchurch International Airport, The Star, NewstalkZB and The Hanmer Springs Thermal Pools & Spa believe that people in business who provide outstanding customer service provide a community service, and have got together to support this not-for-profit initiative to reward them.

They invite you to tell your story about anyone in a Canterbury business who has gone out of their way to help you.

Your pat-on-the-back will be posted on the Business Hero Awards website (www.businesshero.co.nz) for all to see, and each month Christchurch International Airport chief executive Jim Boulton selects a winner from those nominated. Each monthly winner will be congratulated in The Star and on NewstalkZB, and get other great rewards (including a Hanmer Springs Thermal Pools & Spa Pamper Pack valued at $500).

It's simple: when you get bad service tell Fair Go. When you get great service from anyone in a Canterbury business tell www.businesshero.co.nz

Yours sincerely,

Graeme Abbott, General Manager, Hanmer Springs Thermal Pools & Spa
